Feathered Dreams

celebrating birds in poems, stories & images

Book Reading & Signing
by Author Janet M. Ruth

Join us for an afternoon of Feathered Dreams drifting on the wind of poems and memories in poetic love songs to birds and life.

Janet Ruth —ornithologist, poet, artist, and international birder—will share her love of birds through poem, story and image. With a scientist's eye and an artist's heart, her stories capture the magic that happens when we take the time to stop, look and listen.

Dedicated to 2018, The Year of the Bird, Janet's latest works introduce us to birds familiar and exotic, from grasshopper sparrows (her beloved research subjects), ravens, and owls, to resplendent quetzals and red-capped manakins. With scenes drawn from a Pennsylvania childhood, a New Mexico neighborhood, or a tropical rainforest, Janet explores themes of loss, dreams, and stories both intimate and far-reaching about the birds that share our landscapes.
